

Leading the Arts 2025

Application Form Questions

Leading the Arts in Your School is a modular arts leadership programme for teachers who wish to develop their school's arts and cultural offer. Our tried and tested programme is designed for early to mid-career teaching staff - in any education setting or phase - with ambition and drive to develop a whole school approach to arts and culture, and to make a real difference for the children they teach.

This course is a particularly useful development opportunity for schools that are considering or undertaking the Artsmark Award, or for those that are running or interested in offering Arts Award, as it supports and builds on the ethos and values of these programmes.

The cost of the course is heavily subsidised at £835 per delegate. Payment details will be required before your place can be confirmed, if your application has been successful.

To apply for our 2025 cohort, please complete all questions on this form. It's important that you provide detailed answers for questions 10-12, so we can understand how this course will support your personal development and the strategic development of arts and cultural education across your setting.

The deadline for receipt of applications is 04/11/24.
